

CSER CONSORTIUM

CSER at ELSI Congress 2017

ELSI Congress 2017 - Genomics and Society: Expanding the ELSI Universe

June 5th – 7th 2017, Farmington, CT

Unless indicated otherwise, all events are at the Jackson Laboratory for Genomic Medicine (JAXGM) and UConn Health

Monday, June 5th 2017

Time (local)	Location	Participant(s)	Title	Type
Panel Sessions
10:45am – 12:15pm	JAXGM Auditorium	Paul Appelbaum	The Double Helix in Law and the Courts	A1 – Panel Session
1:30pm – 3:00pm	UConn Massey Auditorium	Susan Wolf, Ellen Clayton, Amy McGuire	Developing the Law and Policy Universe to Meet the Challenges of Genomics	B1 – Panel Session
1:30pm – 3:00pm	JAXGM Auditorium	Benjamin Wilfond	Categorizing Genetic Conditions in the Era of Reproductive Genome Sequencing: What Lines, If Any, Should be Drawn for Expanded Genomic Testing?	B2 – Panel Session
3:30pm – 5:00pm	UConn Patterson Auditorium	Kayte Spector-Bagdady, Jim Evans	An “Omics” Update: Effects of Next-Generation Sequencing on Genetic Testing Law & Policy	C1 – Panel Session
Paper Sessions
10:45am – 12:15pm	UConn Patterson Auditorium	Gail Henderson	Embedded Genomics: Promises and Pitfalls	A4 – Paper Session
10:45am – 12:15pm	UConn Patterson Auditorium	Barbara Bernhardt	The Overselling of Clinical Genome and Exome Sequencing (CGES): Maybe It's Just Another Test	A4 – Paper Session
10:45am – 12:15pm	UConn Patterson Auditorium	Allison Werner-Lin	What are We Learning About the Experiences of Women who Receive Positive Results from Prenatal Genome-wide Testing?	A4 – Paper Session
1:30pm – 3:00pm	UConn Patterson Auditorium	Malia Fullerton	Grappling with Genetics: Patient Safety Implications of Increasing Genetic Testing in Cancer Care	B4 – Paper Session
Poster Session
5:30pm – 7:30pm	JAXGM Helix Cafe	Malia Fullerton	Genomics in family medicine: views of community-based providers	Poster Session 1
5:30pm – 7:30pm	JAXGM Helix Cafe	Ida Greisemer	The who, what and why of research participants' intentions to request a broad range of secondary findings in a clinical diagnostic genomic sequencing study	Poster Session 1
5:30pm – 7:30pm	JAXGM Helix Cafe	Michele Gornick	Adolescents' perspectives on participation in pediatric precision medicine research: Findings from the Michigan Oncology Sequencing (MI-ONCOSEQ) Project	Poster Session 1
5:30pm – 7:30pm	JAXGM Helix Cafe	Sarah Walser	Exploring the Content and Process of Returning Results from Pediatric Exome Sequencing	Poster Session 1

Tuesday, June 6th 2017

Time (local)	Location	Participant(s)	Title	Type
Plenary Talks
8:30am – 10:00am	UConn Academic Rotunda	Jim Evans	Ethics & Omics: The Return of Results in the Clinic	Plenary Talk
Panel Sessions
10:30am – 12:00pm	JAXGM Holt Conference Room	Barbara Koenig	Should Every Newborn be Sequenced at Birth? Crafting Policies to Guide Genomic Practice	D3 - Workshop
1:30pm – 3:00pm	JAXGM Auditorium	Kyle Brothers, Allison Werner-Lin, Ingrid Holm	Reporting Dilemmas in Pediatric Genomics	E2 - Panel
Poster Session

5:30pm – 7:30pm	JAXGM Helix Cafe	Barbara Biesecker	A randomized controlled trial to assess non-inferiority of a web-based platform for return of carrier results	Poster Session 2
5:30pm – 7:30pm	JAXGM Helix Cafe	Janet Malek	Parental perspectives on whole exome sequencing in pediatric cancer: A typology of perceived utility	Poster Session 2
5:30pm – 7:30pm	JAXGM Helix Cafe	Jill Robinson	Patients' perceived utility after receiving whole genome sequencing	Poster Session 2

Wednesday, June 7th 2017

Time (local)	Location	Participant(s)	Title	Type
Plenary Talks
8:30am – 10:00am	UConn Academic Rotunda	Wylie Burke	Reinventing ELSI	Plenary Talk
2:45pm – 3:30pm	UConn Academic Rotunda	James Evans, Wylie Burke	Genomics and Society: Expanding the ELSI Universe	Plenary Panel
Panel Sessions
10:30am – 12:00pm	JAXGM Auditorium	Gail Henderson	Ethical Issues in Large Scale Research: Cross-cutting Issues in Exploring Genetic Risk in Adult and Pediatric Populations	G2 - Panel
1:15pm – 2:45pm	JAXGM Auditorium	Kyle Brothers, Richard Sharp	Biobanking 2.0: Re-envisioning Relationships and Engaging New Ethical Challenges	H1 - Panel
1:15pm – 2:45pm	UConn Massey Auditorium	Holly K. Tabor, Barbara Biesecker	The Importance of Choice About Secondary Results from Genomic Sequencing: Opportunities and Challenges for Parents and Prospective Parents	H2 – Panel
Paper Sessions
10:30am – 12:00pm	UConn Academic Rotunda	Joon-Ho Yu	Asian Americans, Genome Sequencing, and Precision Medicine	G3 – Paper Session
10:30am – 12:00pm	UConn Patterson Auditorium	Amy McGuire	What Does it Mean to Own the Data in a Medical Information Commons?	G4 – Paper Session
